The Wire Tapper 25
Your track by track guide to this month’s free CD

01
Hana
“Tata”
Wire Tapper exclusive
(Grinny Records)
The Greek duo Hana consists of Thanasis Papadopoulos and Thamos Bantis, formerly of the group Good Luck Mr Gorsky, who play a variety of analogue synthesizers, samplers and sequencers. Formed in Thessaloniki in summer 2010, Hana will release their debut album this spring.

02
Artifact Shore
“Instruments Of The Devil”
From Instruments Of The Devil (Artifact Shore)
In Brooklyn, New York City, Artifact Shore’s influences include Noise, Prog and post-rock, jazz and shoegaze. They are concerned with, in their own words, “grace and fear, optimism and nihilism, clarity and distortion.”

03
K-Branding
“Driller” (excerpt)
From Alliance (Humphrey Dumpty)
Formed in 2004 in Brussels, this Belgian trio began as an experimental chaos-rock outfit whose debut Facial mixed free jazz and hypnotic industrial noise. Alliance is colder and darker, with a discernible 80s influence.

04
Nicholas Szczepanik
“Please Stop Loving Me” (excerpt)
From Please Stop Loving Me (Streamline)
This native of Maryland began his musical activities with location recordings made on a thriftstore tape recorder. Nowadays, as a student of sound in Chicago, he explores emotion and memory on such releases as The Chiasmos, Dear Dad and this latest intimate work.

05
Obsdil
“Snow Days In March”
From Vicino (Psychrometery)
Field recordings interwoven with classical composition form the backbone of the work of Obscil, aka Giulio AdInucci. Vicino is the third of his albums, following his earlier Points and Distances releases. The name means Ob(serving) s(ilence).

06
Socrates That Pratiques Music
“Judged By The Left Eye”
From Further Conclusions Against An Italian Version (B47) (Junior Aspirin)
Andy Cooke and Alex Ellington formed their drums/electronics duo in 2002 and have been associated all along with the Junior Aspirin label. The pair will perform the album in full at London’s ICA in May.

07
Manekinekod
“Toy Factory” (installation excerpt)
From Osta (Brigade Music)
Greek artist Eleni Adamopoulou began her studies in classical music at the age of 12 and has since played piano, flute and keyboards in a variety of different contexts, including jazz, classical and indie rock. As well as completing her studies as a music teacher, she has produced radio programmes for Tripradio in her hometown of Athens. Manekinekod – one of three aliases she has used – is a “factory of rhythms” with lyrics exploring “a world of non-existence.”

08
Tchical/Hurley/Sanders/Coxon
“Jomajiwa Ichocosa (Live @ Midlands Art Centre 26/11/10)” (edit)
Wire Tapper exclusive
This piece was taken from a free music meeting, late last year, between veteran Danish saxophonist John Tchical and English improvisers Mark Sanders (drums), Mike Hurley (piano) and Spring Heel Jack’s John Coxon (guitar).

09
Melmac
“Accident” (edit)
From Le Désert Arare (Florida)
French brothers Luc and Nicolas Reverter created Le Desert Arare (The Desert Creeps Close) from expanded “instant composition” sessions in a Krautrock style. “Blind cinema” is how they refer to their hallucinatory, abstract, angst-ridden soundworld.

10
Bohm & Cooper-Markanrdt Duo
“Ruf Der Apostel (Apostles Calling)”
Wire Tapper exclusive
(Orangechords)
Inspired by an “artistic quest to not refer to a particular sound, but to particular ideals”, this is the work of Sean Derrick Cooper-Markanrdt, a Chicago-born American living in Berlin, and Lind Bohm, who create their electroacoustic sound from combinations of computers, machines and real instruments.

11
Sheik Anorak/Weasel Walter/Mario Rechtman
“Wotzup?”
Wire Tapper exclusive (Gaffer)
A three-way collaboration between a French guitarist, an American drummer and an Austrian reeds player, “Wotzup?” is firmly in the bracket of hard-edged, loud and fiery improvisation honed with the intensity of rock. Following their two previous albums on Gaffer and Savage Land, a new studio recording is imminent from this well travelled trio.
14. Christian Skjødt
“Innocent Square” (Wire Tapper exclusive edit)
From a forthcoming Tonometer Music release
Christian Skjødt can sometimes be found playing drums in various dubs, hip-hop, improv and Noise outfits, but here the Danish improviser and sound artist investigates the properties of a homemade non-linear analogue synthesizer. Skjødt himself runs the vinyl-only Tonometer imprint.

15. Stearica
“Warp Lag” (Wire Tapper edit)
From Stearica’s Ina-cid Acid Mothers Temple (Homosexual/Robot Elephant)
A trio from Turin, Italy, Stearica have existed for the past 14 years. Their debut album (Itro featured special guests Dilek MC and Amy Denio, among others. This release follows several tours with Japanese psychedelic rockers Acid Mothers Temple during 2010.

16. Philippe Petit & Friends
“Sucumbed To Gravity”
Wire Tapper exclusive (Agapè)
The French electronics producer uses a combination of electric guitars, turntables, computer and synths to build up layers and process acoustic and field recordings, as well as contributions from friends Alison Chesley (cello) and Mark Cunningham, formerly of Mars (trumpet).

17. Nicolas Salomon
“Zoom”
Wire Tapper exclusive
Influenced by a variety of genres, including rock, electro and turntablism, French composer and producer Salomon creates a distinctive electronic sound that melds digital and acoustic, clarity and blurriness, complexity and minimalism.

18. HHY & The Macumbas
“Legba in Dub”
From Legba/Hourglass Remakes (Soopa)
HHY & The Macumbas emerge from the SODPA collective, based in Porto, Portugal, who explore “chaos rock, skull-cave dub, spectral choirs and marching band improvisation”. This percussion-heavy voodoo dub track is part of a remix album which includes remixes by Badawi and others.

19. My Cat Is An Alien
“The Antigravitational Sense Of Nothingness” (Wire Tapper alternate edit)
From What Space Is Made For (Elliptical Noise)
Italian brothers Maurizio and Roberto Opalio work in a “secret base in the Western Alps”, where they have been making instant compositions, electronic music and audio-visual art since 1997. This track comes from their latest magnum opus, a triple box set.

20. Telebossa
“Século Do Progresso”
From Telebossa (Staubgold)
Working together as Telebossa, Brazilian composer Chico Mello and Nicholas Bussmann of Austrian experimental rock outfit Kapital Band 1 explore a new take on samba, electronica, jazz and chamber music. “Século Do Progresso” is a version of Brazilian songwriter Noel Rosa’s 1934 song of the same name.
